

Come Join the Holy Trinity Choirs

The Choirs

Regardless of which mass you go to regularly, you will notice that there is a choir serving at the mass. There is a choir singing at each of the four masses each weekend (5pm Saturday, 8:30am, 10:00am and 11:30am Sunday).

All the choirs enjoy singing a variety of music (from traditional to contemporary hymns), but the 8:30am choir tends to sing more traditional hymns. The same music program is used for the other 3 masses. This allows choir members to attend any one of the masses and be able to participate in the choir.

Combined mass choirs are organized to sing at special masses such as the midnight mass on Christmas Eve and masses during the Holy Triduum. All choir members (regardless of which choir you regularly sing with) as well as interested parishioners who do not sing regularly in the choirs are invited to participate. Additional rehearsals are held for the combined choirs.

Who should join the choirs?

Anyone who:

- loves to sing
- wants to serve as a music minister
- can hold a tune
- likes to learn new music
- is at least high school age
- can commit to attending most choir rehearsals and masses

You need not:

- have any choir experience
- be able to read music

Instrumentalists

You can also participate in the music ministry and play during mass, if you are an instrumentalist and have good sight reading skills.

The 8:30am Choir

The 8:30am choir is directed by Maria Micelli and accompanied by Amy Pun. They rehearse generally on Monday evenings at 6:30pm at one of the choir members' house. The choir warms up before mass from 7:45am to 8:15am at the Church. If you are an early morning person, this choir is for you!

The 8:30am choir dresses in black and white with a lovely silk scarf which denotes the liturgical season. The choir focuses more on traditional church music but do sing some contemporary hymns. The choir is working on some classical sacred choral music as well.

If you are interested in more information, please feel free to talk to Amy or any choir members after the 9am mass or contact Pat Lowes at 604 987 4541 or via email at k_p3943@telus.net.

The "Big" Choir

The choir is directed by Amy Pun and Tanya Stratis is the choir coordinator.

The same music program is used for the 5pm Saturday mass, and the 10am and 11:30am Sunday masses. This allows choir members to attend any one of the masses according to their schedule each week and be able to sing in the choir during mass.

Choir members get together before each mass to warm up and review music. For the 5pm mass on Saturday, the choir warms up between 4pm and 4:45pm in the Church. For the 10am mass on Sunday morning, the choir warms up between 9am and 9:45am in the Church Hall. For the 11:30am mass, the choir warms up as soon as the 10am mass is finished in the Church.

The choirs rehearse generally on Thursday evenings at 7pm at the Church.

Because the choir sings at the family mass, they will be introducing some children music as well as using a variety of traditional and contemporary hymns.

If you are interested in more information, please feel free to talk to Amy or Tanya or any choir members after any of the masses.

Christmas and Easter Choirs

Rehearsals for the music at midnight mass will start mid-October. (It is NEVER too early to think about Christmas!) Rehearsals are held on Thursday nights at 7pm in the Church. The first rehearsal is on October 15, Thursday at 7pm at the church. Towards the end of November, there will be some additional rehearsals on Sundays after the 11:30am mass.

Last year, we had the unique experience of singing midnight mass a cappella (without music) in candle light due to the power failure. Although it was a absolutely magical experience, we will expect to have musical accompaniment this year!

Any singers and instrumentalists who are interested in participating in the midnight mass liturgy should come out to the Thursday night rehearsals.

The Easter Choir sings during the Easter Triduum – Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil. This is the most sacred time of the liturgical year, and preparation of the music for the Triduum starts usually in February.

Same as the Christmas Choir, all choir members as well as other parishioners are welcomed to join the Easter Choir.

If you are interested in more information, please feel free to talk to Amy after any of the masses or contact Amy at 778 340 3032 or via email at amy_pun@yahoo.com.
